Application to visit Australia as a sponsored family visitor

Form
48S

Read the following information carefully BEFORE you complete your application.

Who should use this form?

Use this form if you are outside Australia, and you are applying for a SPONSORED FAMILY VISITOR VISA to visit relatives in Australia, and you have a relative who is eligible and willing to sponsor you.

You will need to complete and sign this form and send it back to your sponsor with all supporting documentation. Your sponsor will need to lodge it in Australia with form 1149 Application for sponsorship for sponsored family visitors.

A Sponsored Family Visitor visa will generally allow you to stay in Australia for a period of up to 3 months. In certain circumstances the period may be longer, up to 12 months. If granted, the visa will only allow you to travel to Australia for a single visit.

Conditions for a Sponsored Family Visitor visa to Australia

Sponsored Family visitors to Australia must be willing and able to abide by the conditions listed below while in Australia. If you are unwilling or unable to abide by these conditions, you should not apply for this visa. If you do not abide by these conditions, your visa may be cancelled and you and your sponsor will be subject to other penalties.

8101 – You must not work in Australia.

8201 – While in Australia you must not engage, for more than 3 months, in any studies or training.

8205 – Where this condition applies, and you intend to study for longer than 4 weeks, you are required to pass a chest x-ray examination before you are able to commence study.

8503 – No Further Stay<sup>1</sup>

8531 – You must not remain in Australia after the end of the period of stay permitted by your initial Sponsored Family Visitor visa.

Further information regarding condition 8503

The effect of the 8503 'No Further Stay' condition is that it will not be possible for you to apply to remain in Australia beyond the authorised period of stay shown on your visa label or on the letter advising you of the grant of your visa. It is particularly important, if the purpose of your visit to Australia is to attend a specific event, that you organise your travel so that you attend this event within your authorised period of stay, as you will not be able to extend your period of stay in Australia.

Sponsor

A Sponsored Family visitor must have an eligible sponsor who will guarantee their stay and lawful departure from Australia and who may be requested to arrange for the lodgement of a security bond. The amount of the security bond is determined on a case by case basis by the delegated officer and is generally between A$5,000 and A$15,000 per person.

It should be noted, however, under the Migration Act 1958 the decision to request a security bond is at the discretion of the delegated officer. Therefore, depending on the circumstances of the individual case, the delegated officer may ask for a security bond of any amount that they see as appropriate.

To avoid your sponsor incurring penalties, you MUST leave Australia before the expiry of your Sponsored Family Visitor visa.

If for ANY reason you do not depart before your Sponsored Family Visitor visa expires, or if you breach any of the conditions on your Sponsored Family Visitor visa, penalties will be imposed upon your sponsor. The security bond lodged to support your Sponsored Family Visitor visa application will normally be forfeited.

If you request a waiver of the 8503 'No Further Stay' condition and this results in your remaining in Australia after your Sponsored Family Visitor visa expires, you will still be taken to have breached the 8531 'Must leave before visa expiry' condition, and the penalties will be imposed upon your sponsor, even if the 8503 is waived and a further visa is granted. The security bond lodged to support your Sponsored Family Visitor visa application will normally be forfeited.

Who can be a sponsor?

In all cases, your sponsor must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident aged 18 years or over and settled in Australia.

Your sponsor must be one of the following:

- a relative (parent, child, adopted child, spouse, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, or 'step' equivalent of any of these); or
- a member of an Australian parliament (Commonwealth, State or Territory); or
- an authorised person representing a Commonwealth, State or Territory government department or instrumentality; or
- a local government mayor.

Your sponsor can only sponsor one person or one 'family unit' at a time. A 'family unit' normally includes the head of the family, spouse, and dependent children of the head of the family. Other relatives may be included in the 'family unit' if they can provide evidence that they are fully dependent on the head of the family. If you and the other members of your family unit are applying for Sponsored Family Visitor visas with the same sponsor, your sponsor MUST lodge all the application forms, and the sponsorship form 1149 in Australia at the same time.

Only one passport holder can apply on a form. You can include in your application any children under 18 years of age who are listed in your passport and who will be travelling with you. If another adult is included in your passport, they need to complete a separate application form.

Who cannot be a sponsor?

There are no provisions for fiancé(e)s, partners of the same sex, cousins, friends, in-laws or New Zealand citizens to sponsor.

If your sponsor has already provided a sponsorship for another relative, and that other relative has been granted a Sponsored Family Visitor visa, and that visa is still in effect, then your sponsor will not be eligible to sponsor you until the other relative has departed Australia and complied with all visa conditions, or until their visa has expired.

If your sponsor has already provided a sponsorship for another relative, and that other relative has breached a condition of that visa, for example they did not depart Australia before the expiry of their Sponsored Family Visitor visa, then your sponsor will not be eligible to provide further sponsorships in this visa class for a period of 5 years. The only exception is where the visa condition that the other relative breached was condition 8531 (must leave before visa expiry) and your sponsor is able to satisfy the department that they breached this condition due to circumstances that:

- were beyond the visa holder's control; and
- arose after their arrival in Australia.

If your sponsor is found to be not eligible after your visa application has been lodged, then your application will normally be refused, on the basis that the sponsorship cannot be approved.

Security Bond

Your sponsor may be asked to arrange for the lodgement of a security bond in support of your Sponsored Family Visitor visa application. The amount of the security bond is determined on a case by case basis by the delegated overseas officer and is generally between A$5,000 and A$15,000 per person.

It should be noted, however, under the Migration Act 1958 the decision to request a security bond is at the discretion of the delegated officer. Therefore, depending on the circumstances of the individual case, the delegated officer may ask for a security bond of any amount that they see as appropriate. The purpose of the security bond is to give the decision-maker assessing your application additional assurance that you will comply with all visa conditions and that you will leave Australia on or before the expiry of your Sponsored Family Visitor visa.

If the delegated officer determines that a security bond needs to be lodged in support of your application, your sponsor will be sent details of how and where to lodge the security bond. The time limit for lodging the security bond is 35 days. Once the bond has been lodged, the decision-maker will be notified, and will be able to finalise the processing of your application.

If a security bond is requested and not lodged, your application will normally be refused.

If a security bond is lodged, and you are granted a Sponsored Family Visitor visa, and you breach any visa conditions, in particular if you do not leave Australia before the expiry of your Sponsored Family Visitor visa, normally the security bond will be forfeited.

Visa Application Charge

Your sponsor must either pay the application charge at time of lodgement or provide evidence that it has been paid. The payment is generally not refunded if the application is unsuccessful. To make a payment in Australia, your sponsor should pay by credit card, debit card or by bank cheque or money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Multicultural and Indigenous Affairs (the department). Your sponsor cannot pay by cash or personal cheque.

How to apply

- All Sponsored Family Visitor visa applications must be lodged at an office of the department in Australia.
- Complete and sign application form 48S. False or misleading information may lead to refusal or cancellation of your visa, or penalties while in Australia. You may arrange for another person to help you complete the application form, but you must sign it. If you have been assisted in completing the application form, you should only sign the declaration(s) if the information in it is true and correct.
- You must tell the department where you intend to live while your application is being dealt with. Failure to give your residential address will result in this application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.
- Send the completed and signed form(s) for you and your family unit members included in the sponsorship and all supporting documentation, including a certified copy of each applicant's passport, to your sponsor in Australia. Your sponsor must then lodge all applications, together with a completed form 1149 Application for sponsorship for sponsored family visitors at a regional office of the department in Australia. Some offices may require an appointment to be made prior to lodgement. The following Department of Immigration and Multicultural and Indigenous Affairs offices process Sponsored Family Visitor visa applications:
  - ACT Regional;
  - Sydney CBD;
  - Darwin;
  - Brisbane;
  - Adelaide;
  - Hobart;
  - Melbourne CBD; and
  - Perth.
- The decision-maker may require you to undergo medical or x-ray examinations.
- If the decision-maker determines that a security bond is required, your sponsor will be contacted and will be given details of how to lodge the security bond.
- If a visa is granted, your sponsor will be advised of the arrangements for a visa label to be placed in your passport.
- Carefully check the details and conditions on your visa label or on the letter advising you of the grant of your visa.

Other types of visitor visas

If you do not have an eligible relative who can sponsor you under this visa class, or if you want a visa which allows multiple entry, you can apply for other types of visitor visas. These are listed below and will require you completing a different visa application form.

Tourist visa, class TR, subclass 676

This visa can be applied for from outside Australia (offshore) or in Australia.

Visa validity

A Tourist visa allows a stay of up to 12 months. A stay beyond 12 months is ONLY granted where 'exceptional' circumstances exist.

It may be granted for a single entry or multiple entries within a specified period.

Generally a Tourist visa (subclass 676) allows a stay in Australia of 3 months or 6 months and is valid for multiple visits within 12 months from the date of grant.

It should be noted, however, under Australia's migration regulations, decision-makers may grant a Tourist visa permitting the visa holder to travel to and to remain in Australia for a specified period that they see as appropriate. In some circumstances the stay period granted may be less than the stay period requested by the applicant.

For more detailed information check the Visiting Australia website at www.immi.gov.au/e\_visa/visit.htm

Ways to apply

There are 2 ways to apply for a Tourist visa:

- apply electronically over the internet; or
- apply on a paper application form.

To apply for a Tourist visa from outside Australia:

- Applications for a Tourist visa may be made via the internet using registered travel agents or airline services or by applicants applying directly on the internet. To apply through the internet, you must hold an eligible passport. A list of eligible passports for this service is available from the Department of Immigration and Multicultural and Indigenous Affairs (the department) website at www.immi.gov.au/e\_visa/visit.htm
- Applications for a Tourist visa may also be made in the conventional way (on a paper application form) at an Australian Embassy, High Commission or Consulate.

To apply for a Tourist visa in Australia:

- Applications for a further stay in Australia as a Tourist may be made via the internet or at an office of the department or by mail depending on the length of the total stay period.
- An application for a total stay of up to 6 months from the date the applicant last entered Australia on an Electronic Travel Authority (Visitor) or Tourist visa (subclass 676) can be made over the internet. Further information is available on the department's website at www.immi.gov.au/e\_visa/visit.htm
- An application for a total stay of more than 6 months can be made at an office of the department (use form 601).

For more details on visa lodgement options check the Visiting Australia website at www.immi.gov.au/e\_visa/visit.htm

Medical Treatment visa, subclass 675 and 685

This visa is for visitors entering for pre-arranged medical treatment in Australia. If you want to apply for this visa, you need to complete form 48ME.

Short Stay Business visa, subclass 456

This visa is for visitors wishing to visit Australia for business purposes such as to attend a conference. This visa allows a stay in Australia of up to 3 months. If you want to apply for this visa, you need to complete form 456.

Sponsored Business Visitor visa, subclass 459

This visa is for business visitors who want to visit Australia for a short business trip, and who have a sponsor who is willing to guarantee their stay in Australia. If you want to apply for this visa, you need to complete form 1238 Application for a sponsored business visitor (Short Stay) visa (for a stay up to 3 months), and your sponsor needs to complete form 1235 Application for sponsorship for sponsored business visitors.

The business visa application form and the required visa application charge (or evidence that the charge has been paid) must be lodged together with form 1235 at an office of the department in Australia.

Health insurance

It is recommended that you take out health insurance for you and your family for the period of stay in Australia. You will not be covered by Australia's national health scheme, unless you are covered by a reciprocal health care agreement.

Vaccinations

If it is your intention to enrol your child in an Australian school or childcare centre (creche or preschool) during your visit to Australia, you are strongly encouraged to carry certification of your child's vaccination status.

Vaccination is recommended against polio, tetanus, measles, mumps, rubella, diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough), Haemophilus influenzae hypo (Hib), and Hepatitis B.

Certification may be sought at time of enrolment.

Note: Vaccination against rubella is also recommended for women of child bearing age.

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Commonwealth Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on the form to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Authorisation of a person to only receive written communications

You may authorise another person to only receive all written communications about your Sponsored Family Visitor visa application with the department. That person will be known as your authorised recipient. To do this, you will need to complete Question 44 Options for receiving written communications and Question 46 Authorised recipient details in this form. The authorised recipient will need to sign at Question 48 Authorised Recipient consent. You can only appoint one authorised recipient at any time. The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient.

The department is required under section 494D of the Migration Act 1958 (the Act) to send your authorised recipient any written communications relating to your application that would otherwise have been sent to you. The department will only send your authorised recipient information which you are entitled to receive. For example, if you are a visa applicant and have a sponsor, your authorised recipient will not receive personal information about your sponsor, unless your sponsor also appointed the same authorised recipient.

If you decide to change your nominated authorised recipient, after you have lodged this application, you must promptly advise the department in writing. You may use form 1231 Appointment of authorised recipient for this purpose.

Authorisation of a migration agent to act on your behalf

If you have a migration agent acting on your behalf in relation to your Sponsored Family Visitor visa application, you need to complete Question 44 Options for receiving written communications and Question 51 Agent details. The migration agent will need to sign at Question 53.

Appointing a migration agent to act on your behalf includes authorising the department to:

- discuss your Sponsored Family Visitor visa application with the agent and seek further information from them; and
- send your agent written communications about your Sponsored Family Visitor visa application that would otherwise have been sent to you.

Note: Your migration agent will be your authorised recipient for written communication under section 494D of the Act and you will be taken to have received any documents sent to them.

If you change your migration agent or end his/her appointment, after you have lodged this application, you must promptly advise the department in writing, preferably by using form 956 Appointment of a migration agent, which is available on the department's website or from your migration agent.

The department will communicate with your agent about your application, including your personal information such as health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. If your agent authorises it at Question 52, this communication may take place by e-mail or fax.

The department will only send your agent information which you are entitled to receive. For example, if you are a visa applicant and have a sponsor, your agent will not receive personal information about your sponsor, unless your sponsor has also appointed the same agent.

In some situations, the department's staff will need to speak with you directly, rather than with your migration agent – for example, if you are applying for a visa the department may interview you. In some situations, the department's staff will also send documents to you directly (eg. passport) instead of to your agent, but it will inform your agent that it has done so.

If you have appointed a migration agent to act for you, you are still responsible for the accuracy of information and supporting documentation that you give to your agent so that your agent can provide it to the department.

When you provide the details of your migration agent, please make sure you include their 7-digit:

- migration agent registration number (if they are a registered migration agent); or
- offshore agent ID number (if they have been allocated one by the department).

Note: Agents who operate overseas do not need to be registered. They may however, have been allocated an ID number by the department.

Using a migration agent

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act in the lawful best interests of their clients and act professionally.

A list of registered migration agents is available from the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) website www.themara.com.au

You can contact the MARA at:

E-mail: themara@themara.com.au

PO Box Q1551
QVB NSW 1230
AUSTRALIA

Telephone: 61 2 9299 5446

Fax: 61 2 9299 8448

The MARA investigates complaints against registered agents and may take disciplinary action against them. If you have a concern about a registered agent, you should contact the MARA. A copy of the complaint form is available from the MARA website.

Restrictions on giving immigration assistance

In Australia, anyone (including a lawyer) who uses knowledge of migration procedure to offer immigration assistance to a visa or cancellation review applicant, sponsor or nominator, must be registered, unless exempted from registration requirements by law. There are serious criminal penalties under Part 3 of the Act for breaching the law – including possible imprisonment if the unregistered person asks for, or receives, a fee or reward for their services.

Using an agent exempted from registration

Certain people, such as officials, parliamentarians, diplomats, close family members (ie. only your spouse, child, adopted child, parent, brother or sister), sponsors and nominators, are able to provide you with immigration assistance as long as they do not ask or receive a fee or reward. If you wish to appoint an 'exempted agent', you must complete form 956 Appointment of a migration agent and attach it to this application form.

Applications for multiple visas

If you are a dependant applicant (eg. the spouse of a primary applicant) and you wish to appoint a different migration agent to the primary applicant, you must fill out a separate form 956 Appointment of a migration agent, or advise the department in writing. Otherwise, the agent appointed by the principal applicant will have the authority to act for all persons included in the application.

Notification of giving immigration assistance

Under section 312A of the Act, a registered agent has a duty to notify the department when lodging an application on behalf of a client, or within 28 days of commencing to act on behalf of a visa applicant. This notification can be done by completing, and your agent signing, the relevant sections of this application form.

Additional documentation

Under the Migration Act 1958, decision-makers are not obliged to seek additional information from the applicant before making a decision on a visa application. It is therefore in the applicant's best interest to submit the following documentation with their application:

- evidence that you have access to sufficient funds to support yourself for the duration of your proposed visit in Australia;
- evidence of your medical/travel insurance (if held);
- medical examination or tests (if applicable);
- a letter from your employer confirming your leave for the proposed period of your visit and that you will return to work after your visit in Australia (if applicable);
- evidence of enrolment at school, college or university (in your home country – if applicable);
- any information to show that you have an incentive and authority to return to your country of residence.

Application checklist

With your completed and signed application form 48S, you must include:

- a copy of all pages of your valid passport.
- proof of payment of the application charge. (Generally paid by your sponsor in Australia.)
- a recent (not more than 6 months old) passport photograph of yourself and any children included in your passport and travelling with you.
- evidence of the relationship between the applicant(s) and the sponsor. For example, if your uncle is sponsoring you, you will need to show evidence (eg. birth certificate, marriage certificate, family census) that he is your mother's or your father's brother, or your aunt's husband.
- if required, authorisation for children to travel with you (refer to the section on the form 'Children included' for details).

Before you lodge your application, separate this information sheet and keep it for future reference. When you have lodged your application, you should attach your application receipt to this sheet.

Understanding your visa label

If you are granted a visa, the following information is provided to assist you in understanding the terms and conditions of your visa.

- 1 The name of the office that granted your visa.
- 2 Your name and the names of any family members included in your application and listed in your passport.
- 3 Visa validity information, including:
  - the date your visa was granted;
  - the date by which you must enter Australia;
  - the number of times you can travel to Australia within the validity of the visa (single entry); and
  - your authorised period of stay in Australia (a maximum of 12 months only).
- 4 The type of visa you have been granted.
- 5 The conditions attached to your visa:
  - 8101 – NO WORK
  - 8201 – MAX. 3 MONTHS STUDY
  - 8205 – X-RAY IF STUDY > 4 WEEKS
  - 8503 – NO FURTHER STAY
  - 8531 – MUST LEAVE BEFORE VISA EXPIRY

Evidence of funds

All visitors to Australia must be able to demonstrate they have adequate funds to cover all costs associated with their visit. Providing evidence of funds will help expedite the processing of a visitor visa application. Examples may include showing personal bank statements showing a financial history, pay slips, audited accounts, taxation records or details of funds that visitors will be taking with them or funds that are available to them. Relevant factors may also include the number of persons to support, the type of activities planned and the length of stay sought.
